

Nixon-Agnew Team Wins Election, Jordan Says

Capitol News Service
SACRAMENTO — The Republican presidential ticket of Richard M. Nixon and Spiro Agnew has been declared the official winner in the Nov. 5 general election, Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan has announced.
 Jordan reported the GOP ticket tallied 3,467,664 votes, gaining some 59,813 more votes than the semi-official results had shown immediately following the election.
 The Democratic ticket led by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey gained 58,048 votes in the official count, for the total of 3,244,318.

JORDAN reported that 7,363,711 Californians went to the polls to vote for president, which was the largest number of people in the state's history to vote.
 Despite the total, the turnout was 85.8 per cent and was not a record. The record was established in the 1964 presidential vote when 88.4 per cent of the qualified voters turned out.
 Los Angeles County exceeded the state average, with a turnout of 86.2 per cent, but the highest county turnout was in Napa County where 88.9 per cent voted.

THE NEW election figures included absentee votes not counted in the semi-official canvass. Jordan said there were relatively minor adjustments in the tallies, and was the least his office has recorded statewide, between semi-official and official canvasses.
 Jordan also certified these votes: American Independent, 487,270; Peace and Freedom, 27,707; and writers: Berkeley Defense Group, 17; Californians for an Alternative, 20,721; Committee for Dick Gregory, 3,230; Communist Party, 260.
